Council Chat by Joann Nixon, Executive Council Leader

Message from the ECL, September 16, 2017

We always look forward to our September meeting when the Tech Trek girls tell us about their camp experience. Their enthusiasm is inspiring for us all. They are very appreciative of the opportunity to attend the camp and said they gained confidence and leadership skills. They told us about their core classes, that Professional Women's Night gave them insight into careers they had never thought about, and they all agreed---being on a collage campus is an amazing experience. Our September meeting is always well attended, we enjoyed brunch on Corky and Jim Ulrey's lovely patio. Joann Nixon, ECL

Minutes of AAUW Branch Meeting, 9/16/17

by Jeanine Rounds, EC Secretary

On September 16 over 50 were in attendance at the opening brunch meeting for AAUW at the lovely home of Corky Ulrey. Included were the 6 Tech Trek girls and their parents. Tanya, Malena, Kaylee, Natalie, Briar, and Muskaan each spoke enthusiastically of how much they had benefited from the week at Davis and how much self-confidence they had gained.

Also, Andi Richmond, scholarship winner from Yuba College, spoke about her educational plans. Among the other guests were math teacher from Brittan School, Marie Lavoie, and the new biology teacher from Yuba College, Melissa Ha. Another guest, Terri Tomlinson, the spokesperson for the Sutter Performing Arts project on Plumas Street, spoke enthusiastically to us about the upcoming musical event, "Joyous Music," on September 24, which will honor those lost in the YCHS bus accident in 1976. She would also like to encourage anyone willing to volunteer a couple of hours a month at the Art Gallery on Plumas. Our member, Dee Day, is a resident artist there. Interested volunteers could contact Terri at tomlinson.t@hotmail.com.

Rosters were handed out, and during the brief business meeting, Sandy Davini presented the proposed budget for 2017-18, and it was unanimously approved.

Bylaws Update

AAUW New Chief Executive

Speaks out about Title IX September 7, 2017
WASHINGTON DC — American Association of University Women Chief Executive Officer Kimberly Churches issued the following statement responding to Secretary of Education Betsy DeVos' announcement concerning the future of Title IX enforcement.

"Secretary Betsy DeVos' decision to open up Title IX for changes represents a blatant intent to roll back protections for students. It is an action that is at direct odds with upholding the civil rights of all Americans.

Make no mistake: Title IX remains the law of the land and this announcement does not alter in any way schools' responsibilities. DeVos' speech noted many situations in which schools have failed to adhere to the law. The response to this challenge is to enforce Title IX not to undermine it. The Department is currently collecting comments on all of its regulations, and thousands of people have vocalized their support for Title IX, its regulations, and current guidance. Secretary DeVos can anticipate a continued call from survivors, students, and advocates for full enforcement of Title IX.

Now is also the time for schools to step up and demonstrate that they will do the right thing for their students even in the midst of potential rollbacks from the Department of Education. Considering that 89 percent of college campuses disclosed zero reported rapes last year — despite the fact that we know incidents are far more frequent — we should move forward and build on past progress not walk back current protections.

The American Association of University Women stands with survivors and remains committed to protecting and defending Title IX, and to pursuing its vigorous enforcement. We must ensure our nation's dedication to full and equal educational opportunities for all students. After all, students' access to an education is on the line. Schools, and the Department of Education, owe it to them to uphold their civil rights, a promise today's announcement fails to reaffirm." By: Kimberly Churches
