Program Notes by Gwyn Baker

On Saturday, January 17th, Chuck Smith editor of the Appeal will give a presentation titled 175 Years of Newspapers in Marysville. He has garnered years of experience working in the world of journalism and graduated from UC Davis with a degree in history and a minor in folklore. As Chuck was retiring from Sutter County in 2024, the position for editor of the Appeal opened up and he took it. Hope you can come to hear him share his passion for local history with us, including past famous editors and how a dispute of honor could be settled by a duel. I will be emailing out the invitations around the first of the month so be sure to check your inbox.

Council Chat by Martha Bunce

In addition to all that we are doing in this busy time, I was trying to get a small cat out of a very tall tree – for 12 days. It was heartbreaking. All the calling, cajoling, renting “a bucket” that reached high in the tree (but not high enough), engaging climbing experts as well as a certified arborist who volunteers to rescue cats from trees ---- failed.

We just had to stop-- and listen to her cry. Isabella and I did not talk about what was next. The twelfth day -- Pixie appeared at cat food time in the garage! Thinner, but sound (and I hope wiser). We think perhaps the rain convinced her to dare to go headfirst down the very scary almost vertical branch.

So, what does this have to do with AAUW? I think we are both the little cat caught in what feels like an impossible situation, and we are the people trying to help.

We work hard to ADVANCE EQUITY FOR WOMEN AND GIRLS. And it feels hopeless at times. We seem to be at an impasse. We are stuck. And we listen to experts, try new strategies, call in more help, think what to do – and sometimes feel like we fail.

And then something happens to get us going -- again. And again. And we take a breath, eat some good food, enjoy the company of AAUW friends, have some fun, and get going again. Welcome to the adventure! It's worth the work, and the time, and the hard parts. And we are not stuck in a tree. We are in this together and it is good.
